Report

Department of English E-Quiz Competition Report

Introduction: The Department of English recently organized an E-Quiz competition on the esteemed literary figures, Charles Dickens and Christopher Marlowe. The competition was aimed at engaging English Literature students, both at undergraduate and postgraduate levels, in an intellectually stimulating challenge that would test their knowledge and perspective on these renowned authors.

Event Overview: The E-Quiz competition commenced on 09/02/2024. It was open to all English Literature students across UG and PG programs. The participants were required to answer a series of questions related to the life, works, and influence of Charles Dickens and Christopher Marlowe within a specified time frame.

Participation: A total of 102 students enthusiastically participated in the competition, showcasing their eagerness to engage with the literary legacy of Dickens and Marlowe. The diverse participation highlighted the widespread interest among students in exploring the works of these iconic literary figures.

Quiz Format: The quiz comprised multiple-choice questions, as well as some short-answer questions, designed to assess the depth of the participants' understanding of Dickens and Marlowe. The questions were meticulously crafted to cover various aspects of the authors' lives, literary techniques, thematic concerns, and cultural impact.

Evaluation Criteria: Participants were evaluated based on the accuracy of their responses, as well as the depth and insightfulness of their perspectives. While factual knowledge was essential, equal emphasis was placed on the participants' ability to analyze and interpret the works of Dickens and Marlowe critically.

Results and Recognition: Upon the completion of the E-Quiz competition, the submissions were meticulously reviewed by a panel of esteemed faculty members from the Department of English. The participants who demonstrated exceptional knowledge and insightful interpretations were recognized and commended for their outstanding performance.

Conclusion: The E-Quiz competition on Charles Dickens and Christopher Marlowe organized by the Department of English served as a platform for students to deepen their understanding of these literary luminaries while also honing their critical thinking and analytical skills. The overwhelming participation and enthusiasm exhibited by students underscored the enduring relevance and appeal of classic literature in contemporary academia.
