Policy on Code of Conduct and Ethics

Yeshwant Mahavidyalaya, Wardha referred to as Institute, is pleased to declare its policy of code of conduct and Ethics to be abided by the faculty Members and Students. This policy indicates the standard procedures and practices for appropriate Conduct and Ethics for the entire faculty as employees and all the students who have enrolled in this institute to study various programs. It is binding on them to strictly adhere to and follow this Code of Ethics and Conduct and the rights, responsibilities including the restrictions flowing from it. This document lays down guidelines and norms to be followed to ensure good conduct and ethical practices in the Institute. The document is made available in both the forms. Soft and hard. All the stakeholders are expected to be well conversant with the code of conduct and academic ethics, which can also be reviewed on the official website of the Institute. If there is a case against stakeholder for possible breach of code of conduct, then the committee handling grievances and its redressal, is forwarded for a suitable disciplinary action and shall inquire into the alleged violation and accordingly suggest the action to be taken against the said student. The committee may meet with the student to ascertain the misconduct and suggest one or more of the following disciplinary actions based on the nature of misconduct. The Institute's endeavor by means of enforcing this code is to pioneer and administer the student and staff discipline process that is egalitarian conscientious, effectual and expeditious, and providing a system which promotes their growth through individual and collective responsibility
